Keyboard switches and diodes are wired as shown for a 37 note (3 octave) keyboard.

The lowest key closes S1 when pressed, the next key up S2, and so on. The highest key of a three octave keyboard closes S37 when it is pressed.

All diodes shown are 1N914 or 1N4148 or equivalent.